

Parenting

It's a contact sport

Parenting is the name given to inspiring your family to elect you as their role model. Parenting can't be outsourced. Who said it was easy?

Parenting happens by winning hearts. Parenting is a voluntary fulltime job.

Shepherding can be forced. But your family are people not sheep.

Reflect long and hard before you decide to become a parent. Then train yourself and take hard decisions about your priorities.

Parenting is a high value investment that yields eternal returns. Those who complain about it should invest in a cold shower. It's cheaper.
